4. RECOMMENDATION c. Review FY 1960 and FY 1961 obligations and adjust.

ACTION TAKEN:

The obligations mentioned have been reviewed by the various operating components and action has been taken to liquidate all balances.

5. RECOMMENDATION d. Improve procedures and control over administration of travel.

ACTION TAKEN:

Action has been initiated to insure that requests for travel orders are submitted sufficiently in advance of the departure date to permit travel orders to be issued and distributed to the traveler for review prior to the commencement of travel.

6. RECOMMENDATION e. Correct deficiencies in administration of advances and payments to contract employees.

ACTION TAKEN:

25X1A

a. The recommendations made in reference to contract employee ☐ are now being followed, with accountings flowing through the Chief, Administrative Division for approval and through the Comptroller, CIA for audit and certification prior to submission to the Finance Division for payment. Travel advances are being held to limits specified in the contract.

25X1A

b. The advance to contract employee ☐ has been reviewed and is being reduced to a minimal amount sufficient to meet current requirements.

4. RECOMMENDATION g. Provide for proper approval procedures at Headquarters and Domestic Field Stations.

ACTION TAKEN:

a. New Delegations of Authority have been issued by the Deputy Director (Research) designating CMA approving and authorizing officers.

b. The USA Contracting Officer has been designated approving officer for payment of invoices in connection with his contractual responsibilities. This constitutes the majority of payments that are processed by USA which could be construed as operational payments. The remaining items that require review by approving officers are travel accountings, station accountings, inquest fund accountings, occasional local procurement items and operational entertainment. The Chief, Administrative Division and his Deputy will continue to approve these items.

c. The misunderstanding of approving authority mentioned in the Audit Report which existed at Edwards Air Force Base has been clarified. Other items in the report concerning Domestic Field Stations have been corrected and correspondence now in hand indicates that in all cases the audit recommendations have been supplemented.

5. RECOMMENDATION h. Provide for adequate cash control at Domestic Field stations.

ACTION TAKEN:

The Chief of Station at Edwards Air Force Base was requested to investigate the incident of the cash shortage and report his findings to Headquarters. This report has been submitted and the matter has been forwarded to the Headquarters Board of Review for determination. Each field station has been directed to adopt the recommendations of the auditors concerning control of cash and in each instance the stations have advised that those recommendations are now in practice.

10. The recommendations and suggestions made by the auditors
